MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Security Research Staff

SUBJECT: Project MERRIMACK

1. Reference is made to this office's memorandum dated 8 August 1967 relative to the above captioned subject. As reflected in Paragraph 2 of this aforementioned memorandum a number of license plates were ascertained during the conduct of several of our covert monitoring sessions during the period 26 - 30 July 1967. Attached is a copy of our investigative report dated 9 August 1967 which sets forth information relative to the subscribers to the license plates in question. Also, on 27 July 1967 records of the Motor Vehicle Department of the State of Ohio were reviewed in Columbus, Ohio and showed that 1967 Ohio License Plate _____ is registered to one _____ Columbus, and was issued on a _____ (no car color indicated).

2. On 27 July 1967 a _____ was contacted and provided the following information from his records:

3. A review of _____ records in the name of _____ showed no record on file.

7. During the period 6 through 8 August 1967, our covert assets very closely surveilled various peace rallies, meetings, etc., staged at Lafayette Park, Sylvan Theatre, DuPont Circle and St. Stephen's Church. The following individuals actively participated in these rallies or meetings:

8. For your additional information, a very discreet special inquiry will be conducted on _____, who, according to our asset, is "very anxious to get a riot started in D.C." As previously reported, _____ attended the "Rap Brown Shindig" on 29 July 1967 at the School for Afro-American Thought, 2208 14th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. and

9. Attached herewith are publications and other literature which were covertly procured from organizations of interest to you (Exhibit A).

10. Also enclosed is a Dun and Bradstreet report dated 15 August 1967 entitled "Civil Disturbances - Newark, N. J. and Detroit, Mich." which is included as Exhibit B. and may be of interest to you.

11. As in the past these indicator organizations are continuing to be periodically monitored and the results of our efforts conveyed to you on a timely basis.
